Brief about the Program (Activity/Event)	On the occasion of World Mother Earth Day, Ar. Mili Majumdar delivered a lecture on 'Resilient and Sustainable planning: Strategies and key concepts in urban planning and buildings' wherein she sensitised students to global climate crisis and need of resilient and sustainable architectural practice. In her presentation she elaborated on the concept of resilience and its relevance to the field of architecture and sustainability. She also talked on the concept of adaptive design to reduce energy demand. Through her project demonstrations she explained how different tools like risk footprint report, climate assessment planning etc. can be efficiently used in resilient urban planning. Through simple graphics she explained strategies for resilient urban planning, sustainable storm water management, and mitigation of urban heat island effect, climate resilient housing design and energy efficient building design. Overall the session made students aware of the practical aspects and future prospects of sustainable architectural practice and green building design.

Brief about the Program (Activity/Event)	On the occasion of Late Shri. V.V. Shirwadkar (Kusumagraj) Janmadin, the renowned Marathi writer, 'Marathi Rajya Bhasha Din' was celebrated with great enthusiasm in M.V.P.S.'s College of Architecture. Renowned artist, Ms. Pooja Nilesh conducted a calligraphy workshop for first year B.Arch and B.Des students. Ms. Pooja delivered a speech wherein he threw light on richness and uniqueness of Marathi language. He expressed necessity of today's generation to have pound for the mother tongue and respect the same by practicing 'Marathi' in day-to-day affairs. Ms. Pooja demonstrated use of simple tools like toothbrush, ice-cream sticks, crushed paper etc. to create beautiful calligraphy explorations in Marathi. Students actively participated in the workshop. Their work was displayed in the campus.
Remarks	Co-curricular workshops are well received by students due to their academic connect and innovative approach

Brief about the Program (Activity/Event)	The World Yoga Day was celebrated on 21st June to bring peace, harmony, happiness and success to every soul in the world. The opportunity was taken by M.V.P.S.'s College of Architecture and Centre for Design, Nashik to imbibe the value of discipline in its students. Volunteers from Yogavidyadham, Nashik were invited to conduct a yoga session in the college between 8 am and 9:30 am. Students got the chance to know how yoga embodies unity of mind and body and importance of yoga as a mental, physical and spiritual practice that needs to be carried every day. The students of B. Arch and B. Des. along with the teachers performed yoga. Different yoga postures like Vrikshasana, Uttaanaasana, Trikonaasana, Bhadrasana, Shashankaasana, Bhujangasana, Pawana Muktaasana, finally ended with Pranayama and meditation. Prayers were recited before and after the programme.

Brief about the Program (Activity/Event)	The world Yoga Day was celebrated on 21st June to bring peace, harmony, happiness and success to every soul in the world. The opportunity was taken by MVPS College of architecture and centre for design, Nashik to imbibe the value of discipline in its students. Volunteers from YOGVIDYADHAM, Nashik were invited to conduct a yoga session in the college between 9 am and 10:30 am. Students got the chance to know how yoga embodies unity of mind and body and importance of yoga as a mental, physical and spiritual practice that needs to be carried every day. The students of B. Arch and B. Des. with the teachers Prof. Sanjeev Patil, Prof. Ketaki Manolkar, Prof. Suvarna Patil, performed Yoga. Different yoga postures like Vrikshasana, Uttanaasana, Trikonaasana, Bhadrasana, Shashankaasana, Bhujangasana, Pawana Muktaasana, finally ended with Pranayama and meditation. Prayers were recited before and after the programme.
Remarks	The timings and day could be shuffled to ensure larger student participation.
